

B. Implementing a comprehensive approach to harmonize work and family responsibilities	78
1. Providing maternity protection to all women according to international labour standards	80
2. Guaranteeing adequate social protection to recognize, reduce and redistribute unpaid care work	81
3. Implementing gender-transformative leave policies: Increasing provision for fathers and their take-up rates	84
4. Making quality early childhood care and education a universal right	86
5. Creating and protecting quality jobs in the care economy	89
6. Promoting decent work for care professionals, including domestic and migrant workers	90
7. Extending long-term care coverage for older persons	91
8. Promoting family-friendly flexible working arrangements	91
9. Encouraging individual income taxation to boost the participation of women in the labour force	92
10. Offering work reintegration measures	92

Conclusion 94

Country, regional and income groupings 97

Bibliography 99

Figures

1. Gender gaps in labour force participation rates by region, 1995 and 2015	7
2. Employment-to-population ratios by sex and by region, 1995–2015	9
3. Female and male employment status by regions, 1995 and 2015	10
4. Informal employment as a percentage of non-agricultural employment by sex (latest year available)	11
5. Unemployment rates by sex and by region, 1995–2015	13
6. Youth unemployment rates by sex and by region, 1995–2015	15
8. Time-related underemployment as a percentage of total employment, 87 countries (latest year available)	18
9. Excessive hours of work: Wage and salaried workers and self-employed working more than 48 hours a week and gender gap, 100 countries (latest year available)	19
10. Time spent on paid and unpaid work (for persons in employment, unemployed or inactive) by sex, 65 developing and developed economies (latest year available)	20
11. Time spent on paid and unpaid work for employed persons by sex, 46 developing and developed economies (latest year available)	21
12. Daily time spent on unpaid work for employed persons by sex, 23 countries and territories (earliest and latest years available)	21
13. Employment by sector and by sex, 1995 and 2015	22
14. Sectoral employment by sex and change in concentration over time, 1995–2015	24
15. Occupational segregation, 142 countries (latest year available)	25
16. Employment by occupations requiring different skills, change in employment over the period, 1995–2015	26
17. Employment by occupations by sex (earliest and latest year available)	27
18. Gender wage gaps over time, earliest and latest year available and 2015 GDP per capita in purchasing power parity in US dollars (PPP$)	29
19. Gender wage gaps for selected countries by type of earnings data (latest year available)	29
20. Gap between men and women in respect of the legal coverage of old age and survivor's pension (various years)	31
21. Proportion of women and men in employment affiliated to a pension scheme, 111 countries (latest year available)	31